NEBRASKAN TO BE LAID UP.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 2.—The American-Hawaiian steamer Nebraska Captain Weedon, sailed yesterday for Honolulu, by way of Seattle with merchandise. Upon returning to this city, some weeks hence, the Nebraska will be laid up for an overhauling. She has been plying in the Puget sound and Hawaiian trade for a long time and is in need of an overhauling.

STOWAWAYS SMOKED OUT.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—When one day out of Honolulu, on the way to this port, fire broke out among the bunches of bananas stowed on the hurricane deck of the Sonoma. This was at 10 o'clock at night. Chief Officer Koughan and all the deck force of the Sonoma were called out, and after two hours' hard fight with the hose the flames were extinguished. The fire is said to have been caused by sparks from the smokestacks. The passengers on the liner were not aware of the fire until the following morning, when they learned about it at breakfast. They learned incidentally that three stowaways had been discovered beneath the pile of bananas. These men had gone aboard at Honolulu and hidden away on the upper deck, and only the smoke and fire from the burning bunches of bananas forced them out upon deck. No damage was done to the vessel.

When you feel that usual attack of Spring fever coming on, don't punish yourself with unpleasant medicines, just order a case of Rainier Beer and be comfortable.
